

In order to have access to the Internet using the computers at the Lake Whitney Public Library, I agree to the following guidelines:

- I will sign in and out on sheet required for access to a computer.
- I understand that a trained staff member may not always be available to assist me in my Internet search.
- I will not use the Internet at the Lake Whitney Public Library for, or in support of illegal or obscene activities. Illegal activities are defined as a violation of local, state and/or federal laws. Obscene activities are defined as a violation of generally accepted community standards.
- I understand that viewing materials that may be offensive to other patrons is prohibited.
- I will abide by the copyright laws, licensing agreement, and contracts.
- I will not use the Lake Whitney Public Library's Internet computers to access, use, destroy, alter, dismantle or disfigure any data information technologies, properties, or facilities.
- As a user or the parent of a child 18 years of age or younger, I am responsible for the information accessed over the Internet.
- Children under the age of 13 must not be left unattended in the library; they must be with parent/guardian of the age of 18 or older at all times.
- I understand that I cannot input and save any information into the computer at anytime.
- I understand that any violation of these guidelines will result in disciplinary action, which may include suspension or removal of Internet access privileges and/or legal actions.
- I understand that the use of any Internet computer workstation is limited to one hour per day, and on first-come

- first-served basis.
